Dear Sir/Madam

Request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000

Please find below/attached the Isle of Wight NHS Trust's response to your request.

- Number of times in each of the last five years when the Trust has received a request for information from the Home Office for the purposes of tracing an immigrant offender
- 2011/12, 2012/13, 2013/14, 2014/15, 2015/16.
- Number of times since 1 January 2017 when the Trust has received a request for information from the Home Office for the purposes of tracing an immigrant offender.
- Number of times the Trust was able to provide such information.
- Examples of the type of information supplied by the Trust e.g. addresses, phone numbers, next of kin etc. NB: I'm looking for categories of information, not the information itself.

Response: The Trust has not received any requests for information from the Home Office

A copy of this response will be published on the Trust website.

We would like to bring to your attention the unique status of the Isle of Wight NHS Trust which serves a resident population of 140,000 with a substantial influx of tourists during the summer months. The Trust provides acute, ambulance, community, maternity, mental health services on the Isle of Wight. As the only fully integrated service provider in England with this unique range of services, comparisons with other service providers are not always straightforward.

This letter also confirms the completion of this request. A log of this request will be held on a database by the Trust. All hard copy correspondence relating to this request will be held for one year from the date of this letter, before being confidentially destroyed.

If you are unhappy about the response you have received your first line of action should be to write and request the Trust to undertake an internal review of your application. A senior member of staff, who was not involved with your initial application, will undertake this review. If after this process you are still not satisfied with the response you receive from the Trust you can complain to the Information Commissioner at the following address:
