

Tell us your views on mental health care

Community Mental Health Survey 2023

This trust will soon be carrying out a survey to understand what you think about your care.

This is a national survey and last year we heard the views of nearly 15,000 people. The results are crucial to improving the quality of care and people's mental health care experiences.

Do I have to take part?

Participation is voluntary and all answers are confidential. If you do not wish to take part, it will not affect the care you receive from the NHS. You can decide not to take part, or if you do not want to answer some of the questions, you can do so without giving a reason.

I do not wish to take part in the survey. What do I do?

If you do not wish to take part, or for your details to be shared with researchers so you can be sent a questionnaire, or if you have any questions then please let us know by the end of June using the contact details below.

If you do not want to take part, or have any questions about the survey please contact:

We want to know what mental health care is like for young people in your trust.

You may be sent a letter inviting you to take part in this important survey in a few months' time because you have used community mental health services during April and May 2023. Survey invitations will be sent out in August and September 2023.
